The Episcopal Diocese of Southern Ohio

Journal of the 129th Annual Convention
November 14-15, 2003
Cincinnati, Ohio
About this Journal

The format of the Journal has changed this year to include an 8 ½ by 11 booklet and a CD with the journal in an interactive PDF. The hope was that this would be more conducive to the increasingly computer-based communication – and that congregations could easily copy – or burn – additional CDs at the request of parishioners (versus copying 100 pages!). Although the journal is copyrighted, copies (either CD or paper) may be made for parishioners, church staff or those affiliated with diocesan ministries. This year’s journal – as well as those from previous years – also is available online at www.episcopal-dso.org.

The CD includes a directory of clergy and congregations. Although the most up-to-date information for the directory is online at the diocese’s web site, the CD directory includes contact information for all of the clergy, congregations, affiliated ministries, key lay leaders and staff. In addition to improving the ease-of-use, the new format saves thousands of printing dollars. Burning a CD is much cheaper than printing two booklets of more than 100 pages each.

Please plan to keep your binder. It will serve as the home for future journals and directories. In 2005, we do not intend to send new binders to all congregations, but we will have some available to accommodate personnel changes.

We appreciate your interest and look forward to feedback about the new format.

Minutes of the 129th Annual Convention
The Episcopal Diocese of Southern Ohio
November 14-15, 2003
The Marriott Northeast Hotel, Cincinnati, Ohio

One Lord, One Faith, One Baptism

Business Session #1
10 a.m., Friday, Nov. 14, 2003

The Right Reverend Herbert Thompson Jr., Bishop Diocesan, called to order the 129th Annual Convention of the Diocese of Southern Ohio at 10:10 a.m.

Bishop Thompson’s opening prayer incorporated the prayer for the Diocese’s Clear Vision of One Church.

Almighty God, we thank you for calling your Church, through the Great Commission, to make disciples of all nations: Through your Holy Spirit enable us of the Diocese of Southern Ohio to embrace the calling you have set forward through us; By that same Spirit, make every congregation powerful in the spread of the Gospel and make each of us a willing evangelist for Christ; that through this Diocese, many may come to know Jesus as Savior and follow him as Lord in the fellowship of the Church; through the same Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever. Amen.

O God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, our only Savior the Prince of Peace: Give us grace seriously to lay to heart the great dangers we are in by our unhappy divisions; take away all hatred and prejudice, and whatever else may hinder us from godly union and concord; that, as there is but one Body and one Spirit, one hope of our calling, one Lord, one Faith, one Baptism, one God and Father of us all, so we may be all of one heart and of one soul, united in one holy bond of truth and peace, of faith and charity, and may with one mind and one mouth glorify thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty and ever living God, source of all wisdom and understanding, be present with those who take counsel in this Diocese of Southern Ohio for the renewal and mission of your Church. Teach us in all things to seek first your honor and glory. Guide us to perceive what is right, and grant us both the courage to pursue it and the grace to accomplish it; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Convention Administration

First report of the Credentials Committee

Mrs. Betty Heathcote, a member of the Committee on Credentials, presented the first numerical report of the committee. A quorum was present, consisting of 85 clergy and 225 lay delegates, for a total of 310 eligible voters.

Mrs. Heathcote presented Credentials Committee Resolution #1, extending seat and voice to certain individuals.
Whereas certain people have made many sacrifices of time, energy, and talent and contributed creatively to the life of this diocese:

Be it resolved, that, in accordance with Article VI, Section 1 of the Constitution the following individuals be granted seat and voice at this 129th Annual Convention of the Diocese of Southern Ohio:

- the Lay Members of the Standing Committee and Diocesan Council;
- the Lay Trustees of the Diocese of Southern Ohio; the Provosts of the Deaneries;
- the Lay Deputies to General Convention;
- the Chancellor and the Treasurer of the Diocese;
- Our Youth Representatives;
- the members of the Executive Board of the Episcopal Church Women of the Diocese;
- the Sisters of the Community of the Transfiguration;
- all Non-Canonically Resident Clergy Licensed to Officiate and currently serving congregations in the diocese;
- The Rev. David Hawley, Presbyterian Pastor of the Indian Hill Church;
- Lay members of Diocesan Staff;
- and resource people for Resolutions and Canons, if they are not otherwise members of Convention.

The motion was seconded and passed.

Responding to a request that the members of St. Simeon and St. Anna be granted seat and voice, the chair ruled that those persons would be recognized later in the convention, but they would not be given seat and voice.

Noting that all congregations had met the constitutional deadline for paying their Mission Share Assessment, Mrs. Heathcote presented Credentials Committee Resolution #2, concerning Congregations with difficulties in filing their Parochial Report or Audits.

The Canons of this Diocese state that congregations who miss the stated deadlines for filing Parochial Reports and Audit “shall be deprived of Lay representation in Convention unless excused by vote of the Convention.”

The Credentials Committee has been assured by Diocesan Council that the following congregations who missed deadlines have by now completed their obligations, or have assured Council of their intention to do so in a timely manner. Therefore I move that the Lay Delegates from:

- Christ Church, Xenia, which paid its mission share assessment for 2002 in the first week of July, 2003, one week after deadline; and
- St. Mary’s, Waynesville; and
- St. John’s, Lancaster, who missed parochial report deadlines, but returned their reports within a week after the deadline… and
- Grace Church, Cincinnati
- St. James, Columbus
- St. Paul’s, Columbus
- Ascension, Middletown
- St. Matthew’s, Westerville
- St. Anne’s, West Chester, who missed their deadline for the audit but have or have promised to rectfy this, be seated with voice and vote at this convention.

The motion was seconded and passed.

Mr. Joseph Hubbard, Provost of the Cincinnati West Deanery, welcomed the 129th Convention of the Episcopal Diocese of Southern Ohio to Cincinnati.

Bishop Thompson reviewed the purpose of the Faith and Life Committee and its sponsorship of the Theologian-in-Residence program, noting that in the past, the selected theologian spent anywhere from 10 days to three weeks in the diocese. This year’s theologian, the Rev. Dr. Walter Bouman, is spending nine months in the diocese and is available to all congregations. He will also serve as chaplain to the Convention and Convention Eucharist preacher.

Bishop Thompson introduced Dr. Don Reed, chair of the Faith in Life committee, who in turn introduced Dr. Bouman.

Dr. Bouman spoke briefly, indicating his enthusiasm for his role with the diocese.

As a concrete example that Southern Ohio is living into its vision is to bring more people to Jesus Christ, Bishop Thompson called on the Canon Missioner, the Rev. Canon Stephen Muncie, to present a congregation to be welcomed into full union with the diocese as a Mission in Good Standing.

Canon Muncie testified that St. Mary Magdalene, Maineville, had met the provisions of Canon XVI, section 16, by presenting to the bishop Bishop a petition signed by at least 20 people requesting to be designated as a mission in the Diocese of Southern Ohio. The Commission on Congregational Life has reviewed said petition and recommended affirmative action to the Bishop. Bishop Thompson indicated to the Commission on Congregational Life and to Diocesan Council that his opinion was favorable.

Canon Muncie then moved that the 129th Convention of the Diocese of Southern Ohio receive St. Mary Magdalene of Maineville, Ohio, as a mission in good standing, and that two lay delegates from said Mission be given seat, voice and vote according to the provisions of Canon III, section 4(a).

The motion was seconded and passed.

The delegates from the diocese’s newest mission were greeted with a round of applause. Mr. Jeff Queen, the congregation’s Lay Church Planter, spoke briefly to the convention.

Ratification of Appointments

In accordance with the Constitution of the Diocese, Bishop Thompson appointed the Rev. Heather Wiseman as Secretary of the 129th Convention.

A motion to approve the appointment was seconded and passed.

Also in accordance with the Constitution of the Diocese, Bishop Thompson announced that the Rev. Heather Wiseman had appointed the Rev. Paul St. Germain as the Assistant Secretary and Mrs. Patricia Ellertson as Recording Secretary.
Bishop Thompson further announced that he had appointed the Rev. Canon Anne Robbins as Parliamentarian and the Rev. Deacon John Brandenburg as Chief Teller.

Bishop Thompson then appointed the committee to approve the Minutes of the 129th Convention: Mr. Chips Lanier, the Rev. Canon Steve Muncie, and the Rev. Deacon Laura Chace.

The Bishop’s final appointment was the committee to review the Bishop’s Address: the Ven. James Hanisian, the Rev. Vicki Zust, Mr. Chips Lanier and the Rev. Kwasi Thornell.

Report of the Committee on Dispatch of Business

The Right Reverend Kenneth L. Price, Bishop Suffragan and Chair of the Committee on the Dispatch of Business, moved that the Secretary be directed to express greetings from the Convention to the Rt. Rev. William G. Black, seventh bishop of the Diocese of Southern Ohio, and to the Rt. Rev. Whakahuihi Vercoe of the Maori Bishopric of Aotearoa in New Zealand, and the Rt. Rev Sehon Goodridge from the Diocese of the Windward Islands, our companion dioceses.

The motion was seconded and passed.

Bishop Price reviewed the Rules of Order printed in the convention booklet, pointed out the resolutions and the canonical change, urged delegate preparation prior to voting, noted the hearings scheduled for Saturday morning, described the voting process and concluded by asking for adoption of the Agenda for the 129th Annual Convention.

The motion to adopt the Agenda was seconded and passed.

She moved acceptance of the minutes.

The motion was seconded and passed.

Noting that the Canons call for a voice vote ratifying his other appointments, Bishop Thompson called attention to the document entitled “Bishop’s Appointments for 2004,” a listing of appointments for representatives to the Provincial Synod, the Ohio Council of Churches, and various diocesan committees and commissions, and asked that they be ratified.

A motion to approve the appointments was moved, seconded and passed.

Chips Lanier, First Vice President of Diocesan Council, reminded Convention of the upcoming Summit II at Procter Conference Center on March 27, 2004, to be attended by all heads of commissions and committees.

R2003-2 affirms campus ministry.

Mr. Heathcote reminded delegates that the Rules of Order state, “Resolutions not submitted to the Resolutions Committee prior to the 60th day preceding Convention, and not arising from the Bishop’s Address, may be submitted during the first session at a time established by the Agenda Committee.” A two-thirds vote of the Convention must approve such additional resolution for consideration.

No new resolutions were presented.

First Report of the Budget Committee

Bishop Thompson called on the Rev. Canon Arthur Hadley, Chair of the Budget Committee, to formally place before the Convention the Budget for 2004.

The Rev. Hadley explained the Budget as printed in the convention packet and reminded delegates that a hearing on the budget was scheduled for Saturday morning, with voting on the budget also scheduled for Saturday morning following workshops and hearings. Bishop Thompson’s Annual Address

Bishop Thompson’s address focused on his thankfulness for the diocese, its spirit of unity in the face of multiple challenges and its commitment to the national church. He reminded the Convention that evangelization is the sine qua non of the Church, that the Church content to live a maintenance life will die, and that every church should become a mission station. In accordance with the Church’s Canons, he called for the election of his successor, the Ninth Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Southern Ohio. The Standing Committee has set June 11, 2005, for the election, and the consecration of the new bishop will follow the conclusion of the 131st Diocesan Convention in November 2005. Much of MVERN’s work is hands-on. Mrs. Betty Heathcote of the Committee on Credentials reported that a quorum was present including 105 clergy and 259 lay delegates for a total of 364 eligible voters.
Budget Committee Resolution #4

The Rev. Art Hadley, chair of the Budget Committee, presented a Mission Share Funding Plan, noting that in 1998 at the 124 Diocesan Convention, a resolution was passed that set the present Mission Share funding plan at 20% of the base with reductions for budgeted work outside the parish and a standard deduction of $50,000. It also included an annual cap for any increase in a given year so that a new Mission Share would not exceed 110% of the previous year’s Mission Share. This plan expires in 2004, and therefore the Budget Committee proposes the following modification to that resolution for this convention which will take effect in 2005.

Be it resolved, that the Mission Share Funding Plan (MSFP) be set for the years 2005-2009 at a rate of 20% of the base (currently identified as Letter A of the Parochial report for the appropriate prior year) reduced by a. line 13 (budgeted work outside the parish) which will become the “adjusted base”
b. a standard deduction of $55,000,

And be it further resolved that when the initial calculations results in a Mission share that is less than 10% of the “adjusted base,” it will be set at 10% (a tithe) of the adjusted base,

And be it further resolved that no Mission Share will exceed 112.5% of the previous year’s Mission share,

And be it further resolved that parishes will retain the right of a Mission Share Review and mission congregations will retain the right of the same appeal when they present their projections to the Commission on Congregational Life during the annual Grant Application Process (GAP),

And be it further resolved that Diocesan Council set another Funding Plan review in the year 2008 to establish a funding plan for 2010 and beyond.

The motion was seconded and passed.

Action on Canonical Change

Mr. Joseph Dehner, Chair of the Committee on Constitution and Canons, presented the proposed canonical change, noting that most of the changes proposed by the committee had been adopted by delegates at the 128th Convention, but the delegates had asked that the Committee rework Section 18—Congregations Not in Good Standing (former Section 20). The proposed Canon XVI would delete the existing Section 18 Congregations Not in Good Standing (former Section 20) and add the following new Sections 18 and 19. The existing Sections 19 through 29 would be renumbered 20 through 30.

Canon XVI:

Congregations in Good Standing

Section 18. (a) Any Congregation will be considered to be in Good Standing by meeting the following criteria:
The Congregation employs Clergy who are licensed in the Diocese; uses church buildings and grounds for purposes consistent with its consecration; and follows a course consistent with the doctrine, discipline, and worship of this Church.

The Congregation annually elects and regularly assembles a Vestry or Mission Council; annually sends representatives to the Annual Convention of this Diocese; pays its full Diocesan assessment for the preceding calendar year by June 30 of any year or by one week before the scheduled meeting of the Convention if that precedes June 30.

The Congregation has been diligent in its search for and election of a Rector, or has accepted the Bishop’s appointment of a Vicar, or, in the case of a recognized Area and Cooperative Ministry, diligent in searching for and calling a Priest.

The Congregation maintains adequate insurance to protect the Congregation’s capital assets.

The Congregation makes timely reports and prepares and submits to the Bishop or Ecclesiastical Authority the Parochial Report for the year ending December 31 preceding, not later than March 1 of each year.

The Congregation secures an annual audit of all accounts of the Congregation for the year ending December 31 preceding, under procedures authorized by the Finance Committee of the Diocese and reports such audit by September 1 of each year.

The Congregation recognizes the Bishop as Chief Pastor of the Diocese.

The Congregation shows evidence of financial stability, including protection for the principal portion of endowment funds from persistent invasion and by encumbering property only with the previous consent of the Bishop and Standing Committee.

(b) Should a Congregation fail to comply with Section 18 (a. 2), Section 18 (a. 5), and Section 18 (a. 6), that Congregation shall be denied Lay representation at that year’s Diocesan Convention.

Congregations at Risk

Designation of a Congregation at Risk

Section 19. Purpose (a) This Section is intended to address the exceptional case of a Congregation whose continued viability as a self-sustaining entity appears in jeopardy, such that a degree of episcopate intervention or oversight is needed as a means of restoring health to the Congregation. It is not intended to detract from the traditional right and responsibility of Parishes in the Episcopal Church to govern themselves. In those cases where an inquiry is initiated, and where a Congregation at Risk is declared, it shall be the duty and obligation of all parties to work and pray toward the resolution of such problems in a climate of respect and charity in order to accomplish the speedy end or substantial amelioration of the conditions that led to the inquiry or to the declaration of the Congregation at Risk, and to restore the Congregation to spiritual and temporal health.

Conditions Leading to Determination of a Congregation at Risk

(b) No declaration of a Congregation at Risk may be made except upon a finding, following inquiry, that one or more of the following conditions exist in the Congregation:

The failure of a Congregation for two years or more, to be financially self-supporting. It shall not constitute a failure to be financially self-supporting that the Congregation shall have received funding from the Diocese, so long as the Congregation is self-supporting with such funding.
The failure for at least two years to elect a Vestry or Mission Council or to search diligently for and elect a Rector or accept the Bishop’s appointment of a Vicar or, in the case of a recognized Area and Cooperative Ministry, to diligently search for and call a Priest.

The failure to pay the minimum Clergy compensation as required by Diocesan standards; or the failure for two years to pay such compensation from funds other than those provided by Diocesan assistance; or the failure to make timely payment of the premium under the Clergy pension system, or of the premium for any other obligatory insurance for the Clergy.

The refusal or willful failure to arrange for representation of the Congregation at an Annual Convention of the Diocese.

The failure or neglect to make canonically required reports, including the annual Parochial Report to the Bishop, or to pay Diocesan assessments.

Persistent and significant instability or decline in the financial or temporal condition of the Congregation, as evidenced by, for example, substantial invasion of the principal portion of endowment or trust funds, to such a degree that, in the judgment of the Bishop and the Standing Committee, the long-term viability of the Congregation is in jeopardy.

Persistent failure or neglect to conform to the business methods in church affairs required by the Constitution and Canons of the Episcopal Church or of the Diocese, including those requirements relating to the bonding of treasurers or other custodians of funds, proper record keeping, proper maintenance of books of account, an annual audit, and the maintenance of adequate insurance.

The purchase, use, or conveyance of property of the Congregation, or the incurring of debt, other than in conformity with the Constitution and Canons of the Episcopal Church and of the Diocese, except where such non-conformity was inadvertent and resulted in no substantial prejudice to the property or temporal interests of the Congregation.

Inquiry for Purposes of Restoration of Congregational Health

An inquiry by the Ecclesiastical Authority leading to a declaration of a Congregation at Risk under this Canon may be initiated by one of the following ways:

1. The Bishop, believing that one or more of the conditions in Section 19 (b) may exist, may initiate such inquiry;

The Standing Committee, believing that one or more of the conditions in Section 19 (b) may exist, may petition the Bishop to initiate such inquiry; or if the Standing Committee is the Ecclesiastical Authority, it may initiate such inquiry by unanimous vote;

The Rector or Vicar or Priest serving a recognized Area and Cooperative Ministry, or both Wardens, or a majority of the Vestry, believing that one or more of the conditions in Section 19 (b) may exist, may petition the Ecclesiastical Authority to initiate such inquiry.

Upon proper initiation as provided in (c) above, the Ecclesiastical Authority may, itself or acting through its designates, conduct such inquiry into the condition of the Congregation. The Rector, Vicar, or Priest in Charge and Vestry or Mission Council of the Congregation which is the subject of such inquiry shall cooperate in an inquiry under the Canon, including providing to the inquiring entity, upon request, full and accurate information on the state of the Congregation and its affairs. Failure to reasonably cooperate shall be sufficient to permit a declaration that the Congregation is a Congregation at Risk.

Upon a finding that the Congregation is a Congregation at Risk, one or more of the following measures to strive to restore the health of the Congregation may be had, in the discretion of the Ecclesiastical Authority:

1. Arrange for pastoral discussions to be held between the Bishop and/or the Bishop’s representatives and the Rector or Vicar and Vestry or Mission Council of the Congregation to seek amelioration of the conditions that inhibit the health, mission, and ministry of the Congregation.
2. A plan for the Congregation to cure the conditions, which led to the declaration of a Congregation at Risk, agreed to by the Congregation within 30 days, and implemented thereafter in accordance with its terms.
3. Appointment by the Bishop of five or more adult Trustees to take charge of the property of the Congregation and exercise the rights and functions of a Vestry or Mission Council, during the pendency of these conditions. Said Trustees may or may not be from the Congregation.

In the case of a Parish, designation of a Priest in Charge during the pendency of these conditions; said Priest may or may not be the incumbent.

Conveyance of title of all real property to the Trustees of the Diocese, who shall hold the same in trust during the pendency of these conditions.

Such other measures, during the pendency of these conditions, as the Bishop, with the concurrence of the Standing Committee, shall determine (or as determined by the Standing Committee acting unanimously, if it is the Ecclesiastical Authority).

In accordance with Canon XVI, Section 19 (b. 2), when any Congregation shall continue to fail to elect a Vestry or Mission Council, the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee as provided for in Canon XVI, Section 12, may appoint three trustees to take charge of the property of the Congregation and exercise the rights and functions of a Vestry or Mission Council, until the Congregation shall have elected a Vestry or Mission Council under the provisions of this Canon.

[Note: Canon XVI, existing Sections 19 through 29 to be renumbered 20 through 30]

After a request to vote by orders, the motion was passed by both the lay and the clergy delegates.

The resolution was seconded and passed.

R2003-03 A Resolution Regarding Theological Differences over Issues of Human Sexuality

Resolved, that the 129th Convention of the Episcopal Diocese of Southern Ohio affirms the acclamation in the Sacrament of Holy Baptism that:

There is one Body and One Spirit;
There is one hope in God’s call to us
One Lord, one Faith, one Baptism;
One God and Father of all.

And be it further resolved, that the members of this Convention remain committed to the Great Commission in Matthew 28, and to what we have discerned to be God’s Vision for our Diocese as articulated in the Clear Vision Statement and Four Strategic Choices; and be it further

Resolved, that this Convention acknowledges that committed Christians in the Episcopal Diocese of Southern Ohio are deeply divided over the issue of whether or not sexual relations between same-sex couples in committed relationships are intrinsically sinful actions; and be it further

Resolved, that this 129th Convention affirms and upholds Resolution 2001-07, which was passed by the 127th Convention in November, 2001, to foster continued dialogue about issues of human sexuality, and which said in part the following:

3) That it is the intent of this Diocese that all persons are to be treated with respect and dignity, regardless of their race, gender, sexual orientation or theological stance;

4) That the Diocese of Southern Ohio affirms that those persons who support the approving and blessing of same-sex relationships, as well as those persons who oppose the approving and blessing of same-sex relationships, both hold recognized theological positions within the Episcopal Church, and such persons are to be treated with dignity and respect as brothers and sisters in Christ;

5) That the Diocese of Southern Ohio affirms that those persons who support the ordination of homosexuals who are in committed, monogamous relationships, as well as those persons who are opposed to such ordinations, both hold recognized theological positions within the Episcopal Church, and such persons are to be treated with dignity and respect as brothers and sisters in Christ;
6) That those organizations which advocate a particular stance on issues of human sexuality, and who are willing to treat persons and organizations of differing stances with respect and dignity, are welcome to participate in the life of this Diocese; and be it further

Resolved, that this Convention extends its appreciation to Bishop Thompson for his pastoral response to the people of our Diocese in his pastoral letter of August 8th, 2003, and be it further

Resolved, that while members of the Episcopal Church in Southern Ohio are in profound disagreement on this important issue, we commit ourselves to endeavor to remain in communion with each other, our Bishops and the Anglican Communion.

The resolution was seconded.

The following was offered as an amendment to the resolution.

Motion to Amend Resolution R2003-03 Replace the third, fourth and fifth resolves with:

Resolved that this 129th Diocesan Convention commend our Bishop for his wisdom and foresight in his vote at General Convention regarding the confirmation of Gene Robinson as Bishop Coadjutor of New Hampshire and his prayerful guidance in his pastoral letter of August 10, 2003;

Resolved that we stand with the Primates of the Anglican Communion in affirming that we are a church in communion and that changes in the teachings of the church are not to be done unilaterally but in consultation with and concurrence of the whole of the Anglican Communion, and;

Resolved that this 129th Diocesan Convention affirms the teachings of the Anglican Communion on matters of human sexuality as stated by the Lambeth Conference of 1998; and calls upon all clergy of this diocese to teach the same and;

Resolved that this 129th convention, following the Godly direction of our Bishop in his pastoral letter, disassociate ourselves from the divisive actions taken by the 74th General Convention of the Episcopal Church in the approval of Resolution C051 in recognizing “that local faith communities are operating within the bounds of our common life as they explore and experience liturgies celebrating and blessing same-sex unions” and the actions of the House of Deputies and bishops of jurisdiction at the 74th General Convention in the confirmation of Canon Robinson; as well as the Diocese of New Hampshire in electing the same, and those bishops participating in the consecration of V. Gene Robinson as Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of New Hampshire.

The chair ruled that the motion was a substitute resolution rather than an amendment and therefore needed a two-thirds vote of the convention in order to be considered.

The vote on considering the substitute motion was taken by orders.

Lay delegates: 76 in favor, 126 against considering the measure. (needed to pass: 135)

Clergy: 29 in favor, 58 against considering the measure (needed to pass: 58)
Having failed to register a two-thirds vote in either order, the substitute motion was not admitted for consideration and the convention returned to consideration of R2003-3.

The resolution passed.

Resolutions in Response to the Bishop’s Address:
Archdeacon Jim Hanisian, Committee to Review the Bishop’s Address

Resolution 1: Whereas Bishop Thompson in his address noted that the first Sunday in Lent, 2004, will mark the first gathering of a Latino congregation in Columbus.

And whereas, Bishop Thompson has called for prayer and support for the Rev. Richard Aguilar in his work among us as Hispanic missioner,

Be it therefore resolved, that this 129th Convention of the Diocese of Southern Ohio offers its support to this significant new ministry among us and,

Be it further resolved that we declare the first Sunday in Lent, 2004, to be a day of prayer for the presence of our new Latino congregation by joining with that congregation in its Sunday worship in the following manner: each congregation will recite the Lord’s Prayer in Spanish that day as a part of their worship services.

Resolution 2: Whereas Bishop Thompson in his address calls on us to share with the congregations in Dayton in supporting the work of an urban missioner, and whereas all congregations should, as a part of their mission, focus on our cities, helping them to be vital stations of mission,

Be it therefore resolved that this 129th Convention of the Diocese of Southern Ohio direct the Diocesan Council and the Budget Committee to provide funding for an urban missioner for the city of Dayton, and

Be it further resolved that each congregation seek ways to fulfill its calling to support missionary efforts to the cities in or near which they find themselves.

Resolution 3: Whereas Bishop Thompson in his address reminds us of our commission by the Archbishop of Canterbury to be faithful to the call to go and baptize all nations and, whereas the bishop further reminds us of our goal to be a church of 100,000 by the year 2005,

Be it therefore resolved that members of this convention personally commit themselves to bring one other person to Christ in the church in 2003, 2004 and 2005,

And be it further resolved that each clerical and lay member of this convention promises to encourage and support members of their congregation to bring one person to Christ in the Church in 2003, 2004 and 2005.
Resolution 4: Whereas in his address, Bishop Thompson expects us to love the Church and love one another,

Therefore be it resolved that this 129th Convention of the Diocese of Southern Ohio, promises to live up to our Bishop’s expectation of us and to hold one another accountable to that promise.

Resolution 5: [See resolution for Episcopal transition that follows]

Resolution 6: Whereas in his address Bishop Thompson reminds us that he is currently in the 16th year of his consecration and, whereas, by elementary mathematics that means that Bishop Thompson has completed 15 years as our chief pastor and bishop and, whereas, it has been rare in the recent history of the Episcopal Church of late that bishops have served more than 10 years,

Therefore be it resolved that this 129th Convention of the Diocese of Southern Ohio congratulates Herbert Thompson Jr. for his commitment to our common ministry and his faithfulness and service as an apostle among us and to the wider church by standing and singing the Doxology.

All the resolutions in response to the Bishop’s Address were approved by convention delegates.

Resolution for Episcopal Transition: Concerning the Election of Bishop IX (Resolution 5)

• In addition to the Profile, the Nominating Committee shall present for consideration and adoption by the 130th Annual Convention details as to the Proposed Plan and Rules for the nominating process.

• It shall announce its final candidates in March 2005 and then, for a period of thirty (30) days, accept other nominations with the understanding that any person so nominated also must undergo a full background check by the Diocese.

• Throughout the process, it shall maintain liaison with the Standing Committee.

Be it further resolved, that the Standing Committee shall also act as the Transition Committee, and as such, it shall:

• Select the consultant for the Nominating Process

• Ensure there is good communication between it and the Nominating Committee.
• Assist in coordinating the relationship during the transition between the Bishop and Bishop-elect.

• Develop a proposed budget and plan for the nomination and transition processes.

Be it further resolved, that upon conclusion of such other business as it may have at the regularly scheduled 130th Annual Convention in November, 2004, it shall adjourn until June 11, 2005, at which time it shall reconvene with the same delegates to complete the process of electing a bishop.

In the case of a recommendation for the formation of a Committee of the Whole, the Committee on Resolutions shall, with such recommendation, propose enabling procedures. If the Convention determines that it does not wish to constitute itself as a Committee of the Whole, the Convention shall proceed, at the time determined by the Committee on Agenda and Dispatch of Business, to debate the motion and vote upon it, without further recommendation from the Committee on Resolutions. In any other case than a recommendation for Committee of the Whole, it shall be the prerogative of any member of Convention to request a discussion by a Committee of the Whole. The Chancellor shall be its Chair. It shall be the responsibility of the Committee to receive recommendations for canonical and constitutional change from anyone who has voice in Convention, evaluate them in the light of current constitutional and canonical procedure, determine whether or not the recommendations conform to the Canons of the Episcopal Church in the United States and see that the proposed amendments or enactments are presented in appropriate form. In order to assist the Committee in its work, no recommendation shall be accepted later than sixty days preceding the Convention. The Committee may, in addition, recommend to the Convention of the Diocese of Southern Ohio that said changes be approved, rejected or amended, in which event appropriate reason shall be given for the determination.

Any action of the Committee shall require a majority of those appointed.

Appendix B: The Bishop’s Address to the 129th Diocesan Convention of the Diocese of Southern Ohio
November 14, 2003
Delivered at the Cincinnati Northeast Marriott
Cincinnati, Ohio
The Rt. Rev. Herbert Thompson Jr., Bishop

“There is one body and one Spirit, just as there is one hope to which God has called you. There is one Lord, one Faith, one baptism, there is one God and Father of all, who is Lord of all, works through all and is in all.” Ephesians 4:4-6.

My brothers and sisters, in the name of Jesus, our risen Lord and Savior, I greet you and welcome you to this 129th Convention of the Episcopal Diocese of Southern Ohio. I thank God for this gathering, for our life together, and for the blessings that God has and continues to bestow upon us as followers of Christ in this day, place and time.

I thank you for living in obedience to our Lord’s Great Commandment to love one another and to his Great Commission to be a missionary church. I thank you for being living witnesses of our Lord’s prayer: “To be one as He and the Father are one.”

I do not need to tell you that these past months and days have been marked by controversy and even turmoil in parts of our Church and beyond our borders. But by the grace of God and, thanks to your witness and leadership, Southern Ohio continues to move forward as a strong, healthy and united diocese.

To my dismay and to God’s great sadness, there are members of the Church who are saying to those with whom they disagree, “I have no need of you.” But Jesus is saying, “Not only do I need you, but I have chosen you, that you should go and bear much fruit.”

I do not diminish the challenging matters facing the Church, but I am unalterably committed to the principle that we, in the Diocese of Southern Ohio, will not be distracted by them. I meant it when I said that we will focus like a laser beam on God’s call to be a missionary diocese. We will keep our eye on the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. We will be the bearers of blessing for our needy world.

I think it is significant that the Holy Spirit is breaking out all across our diocese. Since our last convention, I have, under the hand of God, been blessed to dedicate the new, state-of-the-art sanctuary at St. Matthew, Westerville; broken ground for the new building for the Church of the Good Samaritan, Amelia; dedicated the astonishing addition at St. Thomas, Terrace Park; and helped launch St. Mary Magdalene, our newest congregation, who already has purchased an amazingly beautiful new property I was blessed to be with our St. Margaret, Trotwood, family to dedicate their new building. St. Margaret’s, formerly landlocked, inconveniently located and hemorrhaging in membership, now has purchased 39 acres, built a magnificent church that seats 600, and under the leadership of the Rev. Ben Speare-Hardy, the congregation has embraced a vision for a school and center for assisted living.

Supported by fellow Episcopalians from Dayton area congregations, together we processed into the new church accompanied by drums and singing, “We are marching to the light of God.”

A month ago, I helped break ground for the Church of the Redeemer in Cincinnati. Their Cornerstone project will add worship space, classrooms, offices, meditation gardens and more. It is significant that the Church of the Redeemer accomplished this missionary challenge during an interim period, while seeking and awaiting a new rector. Still, in the interim, they oversubscribed their campaign by more than three times their intended goal.

Bishop Price has dedicated new chapels at St. Stephen, Cincinnati, and Trinity, London. And under the direction of Roger Speer, youth director for the diocese, the senior high youth have built a wonderful outdoor chapel at our Procter Camp & Conference Center.

Over the years, I’ve learned more and more about the wonderful ways of God. I do not worry about money. That wonderful hymn says it all: “Great is thy Faithfulness. O God my Father, morning by morning, new mercies I see. All I have needed, thy hands have provided. Great is thy faithfulness, Lord unto me.”

These groundbreakings and dedications are wonderfully significant for all of us, and I am prepared to go anywhere to set in place for God something that never existed before. These new ventures are signs of God’s reign among us. But I rejoice equally in the countless ways God is honored and exalted in the mission and ministry of every congregation in our diocese. I rejoice in the licensing of 10 exceedingly well-trained lay preachers in the East Central Ohio Cluster. This creative and visionary development is evidence of God’s potential to change not only that part of the diocese, but the entire diocese. “The days are coming,” says the Lord, “when I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh.” Would that all of God’s people were prophets and preachers. Like the Rev. Barry Cotter, Missioner of the ECO Cluster, says, our task is to “unbind [God’s people] and let them go.”

For all of this, I give thanks and praise to God. I cannot thank God enough for His goodness to us and the constancy of his blessing. An article from The Dayton Daily News recently reported that denominations and dioceses across the country are struggling for vocations to the ordained ministry. It acknowledged the one bright spot in this picture is the Diocese of Southern Ohio, which has 57 people in the process toward ordination – more than 20 of them under the age 35.

This summer, Archdeacon Hanisian called me and said, “Bishop, do you know how many vacancies we have in this diocese?” I asked, “How many?” Jim answered, “Two. And one is being filled as we speak.” This has never happened in all my years in the diocese. We owe a great debt of thanks to the Commission on Congregational Life, the Commission on Ministry, and to our superb staff for their support for congregations and clergy. Here, let me say thank you to Bishop Price; Archdeacon Hanisian; Steve Muncie, canon for mission; Patty Hassel, our finance officer; Richelle Thompson, director of communications; Roger Speer, our youth officer; Richard Aguilar, Hispanic missioner; Penny Buckley, director of the Procter Camp & Conference Center; and Dean David Ruppe, whose work helped to bring Bexley Hall Seminary back to Southern Ohio. Thanks to the Rev. Kitty Clausen, Bexley is a fully accredited, degree-granting seminary, in cooperative ministry with Trinity Lutheran Seminary. And my thanks to other staff, including Jeffrey Price, director of public policy; Ida Riley, executive secretary to the bishop and the trustees; and Jane Curry, Bishop Price’s executive secretary. No bishop in the Church is blessed with a more competent and dedicated staff than am I. They humble me by their devotion, and they are instruments of God’s grace for you. No bishop in the Church is blessed to serve among such extraordinary clergy and lay leaders as God has called and raised up in this diocese. I give thanks for the faithfulness, generosity, commitment and hard work of the clergy and people of this wonderful diocese. Above all, we owe a great debt of thanks to God for His wonderful provision.

Two Sundays ago, we instituted the Rev. Stephen Applegate as rector of St. Luke, Granville. It was a glorious service. I was struck by the citation in the Letter of Institution, “Given under my hand and seal, November 2, 2003, in the City of Cincinnati and in the 16th year of my consecration.” 16th year! I felt it should have made reference to someone else. A much younger Stephen Applegate was chair of the Committee on Arrangements for my consecration after I was elected bishop on June 11, 1988. I well remember that day with Russelle by my side.

(A portion of the tape made after Bishop Thompson’s election was shown).

I happened upon this videotape some time last week. Even after all these years, I remain thrilled, awed and humbled – and a bit startled that it was 16 years ago. Russelle was so young and so beautiful – and I had hair!!

Now, before us at this convention, is the matter of episcopal transition. As I viewed the film, I was struck by my own words – the words of a somewhat frightened baby bishop. I spoke about loyalty, my loyalty to my former bishop even when I disagreed with him, and I did disagree at times. I spoke of my expectation of the loyalty of the clergy, and assured the clergy of my loyalty to them. In all three of the congregations I have served in my ministry and as bishop of Southern Ohio, we have held as top priority our giving of our full share to the diocese and to the Episcopal Church. Here in Southern Ohio, our tradition is to give the full asking through the National Church and then, because God has blessed us, to give more. To whom much is given, much is required. Isn’t it timely and instructive that on the Sunday before this convention, we read the Gospel reading of the poor widow giving everything she had to God. She was not sending a message with her money but honoring God with her own self-giving. When we give, we do not give to the parish, to the diocese, to the National Church or to the Anglican Communion. We give to glorify God. We are giving a gift back to God from the gifts God has given us. The only message we send, like the poor widow in the Gospel is, “Thank you Lord! Thank you!” In that 1988 election film, I spoke of evangelism as the sine qua non of the Church. A church that is not an evangelizing church, a missionary church, is a disobedient Church – disobedient to the Lord who said, “Go, baptize all nations.” The Church that is content to live a maintenance life will die – and probably should. God has work to do and his way is to work through people – his Church. The Church that is consumed with squabbling, whatever the issue, is never a church that anyone wants to belong to. And it is not the Church God calls us to be.

I have called Southern Ohio to be a missionary diocese, where everyone is an evangelist, a missionary for Christ. I have called for 100,000 members in this diocese by the year 2005. I know it frightens people, and I know people get caught up in the numbers. When I told this to a friend in New York, a devoutly faithful Christian, she said, “Who are you to limit what God can do?” Does God want 100,000 souls in Southern Ohio to glorify Him? Does God want 100,000 members of the church to carry and implement his victory in the resurrection of Jesus – person by person – until the whole world is filled with the knowledge of the love of God in the death and resurrection of Jesus? Does God want what every follower of Jesus prays for: “Thy Kingdom come, on earth as it is in heaven?” Is the mission of the Church to bring all people to unity with God and one another in Christ? Yes! Yes! Yes! Yes! It’s not 2005 yet. We have two years to go. Perhaps my timetable is not God’s timetable. But we are called to go forward, bringing people to Christ, one by one. If each member of our diocese brings just one person to church, one person to Christ, each year, we will make that goal. (It really is not that audacious, is it?)

The Church exists for those outside. But we must be careful of Pelagianism, the idea that we will do it by our own brilliance and effort and strategies and programs. It is not within our power to convert anyone to faith in Jesus Christ. This can only be the work of the Holy Spirit. But when we are faithfully following Jesus, both in living and telling his story, then the Church will become the place where the Holy Spirit does the work of conversion.

God is faithful. He will bring to completion the good work He has begun in us, in God’s good time and in God’s perfect way. Our call is to be faithful in our commitment to evangelism and service. Our task is to help every congregation become a mission station: a living part of the body of Christ - the place where the reign of God is both embodied and proclaimed. I already have shared with unbridled joy many of the wonderful things that God has done among us, for us, and through us. Let me here say, “Praise the Lord.”

But if we have a weakness, it is like other denominations that have failed to lead the Church to a creative missionary ministry in the cities. While we have a few notable exceptions, we must help our congregations in our cities, both large and small, to be vital stations of mission.

Jonah, that reluctant missionary, was sent by God to the city of Nineveh. Jesus began the week of his passion by riding into the city of Jerusalem. Jesus loved Jerusalem and wept over it.

Like the Essenes, he could have led his followers into the desert. But Jesus chose the Feast of Passover, chose a donkey, not a warrior’s stallion or a ruler’s chariot, to enter the city and claim his throne – the Cross – and there he accepted the cost of that claim.
This is the role of the Church in following our Lord into the city. We, in the Diocese of Southern Ohio, have made a decision to work cooperatively with churches in Dayton, and we are going to share with them in supporting the work of an urban missioner.

The first Sunday in Lent will mark the first gathering of our Latino congregation in Columbus. We give thanks for Father Richard Aguilar’s careful planting of seeds for this ministry across the diocese. We bid your prayers and support for Richard.

In Cincinnati, the W.E.B. DuBois Academy, a charter school began by Will Willard, the son of Canon Wilson Willard, has grown successful beyond our imagining. In a recent evaluation, it scored number six among all elementary schools in the city. We helped launch it with a grant from the William Cooper Procter Fund, and we are looking to replicate this successful school and lift the horizons of young people in other cities across Southern Ohio.

When I was invested as bishop of the diocese on Jan. 15, 1992, the preacher, Bishop Richard Martin, my father in God, in his sermon, turned to me and said, “Remember, Herbert, you are only an interim. You are here between Bishop Black and the next Bishop whom God already has in mind.” My sisters and brothers, we are all only interims. I bid you recall my mention of the interim time at the Church of the Redeemer, Cincinnati, when they oversubscribed the amount of their campaign goal for the sake of the ministry Christ had set before them. Interim times are not to be times of passive reflection but on the contrary, times of passionate engagement.

Now here we are all interims in life and in ministry, and so I, at this 129th Convention gathered in Cincinnati, Ohio, and in accordance with the canons of the Church, am calling for the election of a follower of Jesus to succeed me as the 9th Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Southern Ohio. The Standing Committee of the diocese has set the date of the election for June 11, 2005, to be followed by the consecration of the new bishop following the conclusion of the 131st Diocesan Convention in November, 2005. The detailed transition process approved by the Standing Committee will be shared with this convention.

The question before us now is how are we going to operate in this interim?

The answer is that we will not be distracted by the “issues” that so abound in the Church. We will not allow the divisive politics of some within the Church to claim our attention or distract us. But, rather, we will get on with the mission of Christ before us. And not only get on with the mission, but give ourselves to it more fully than ever. Proclaim the Good News. Bring people to Christ, one by one.

We will walk together in unity, bringing every member along with us. There is no room for spectators or speculators in the Church. No place for lame ducks. There will be no lying fallow, but every inch of soil is to be tilled, sowed and planted and watered that God might give the growth.

I am not worried about the process or the election or even the future. Because I believe in God, I believe in the Holy Spirit, and I believe in you – for I have seen what God has done through us over these near 16 years. With the help of the Holy Spirit, I am confident that we will continue in Christ’s mission, and because we are one, we will be a light in every corner of this diocese, nation and world. I love you, no matter what, and I love the Church, because you are the Church, and for Jesus’ sake, I expect you to do the same.

Amen.

Reports on Governance & Administration

Diocesan Council
Diocesan Council began its year in December of 2002 with an overnight organizational meeting followed by the first Diocesan Summit on Saturday, December 14. This was the first of these meetings held in which the leaders of all Diocesan committees, commissions and working groups were invited to come together at Procter Camp & Conference Center for a workshop centered on each person evaluating their committee as part of one of the Four Strategic Choices presented last year by Bishop Thompson and/or how their committee could interact with other existing committees. These assembled people were directed to self-select which one of the four Strategic Choices groups to be active in during the workshop and worked with the “Indicators of a Missional Church” exercise. The information gathered during these workshop sessions was compiled and summarized and became part of the special January 2003 Diocesan Council meeting. Several areas were discussed, particularly about the concerns of the multiple groups as to their role both in supporting the Four Strategic Choices and how their particular group fits into the choices. A repeated concern was that if a group is not directly linked to a Choice, then its function would not be recognized or supported by the Diocese. We found that there is energy out in the field, but general confusion about the strategic choices and congregations who were unaware about the strategic choices.

One of the purposes of the Summit was to assist people/groups to get in touch with people/groups doing the same type of work and accelerate or facilitate their progress and goals. We learned that Diocesan Council needs to get people to understand the purpose/function of the strategic choices and to help groups define what they are doing for ministry. Strategic Choices are directional tools for people, energies and funding, and the Strategic Choices can provide the channel by which groups/people can do their work better.

As a result of the Summit, Council wishes to repeat the Diocesan wide meeting in 2004, and it will be held in March.

We held our regularly scheduled meeting in March at the Cathedral where, in addition to our regular meeting, we learned about the Cathedral and discussed its function and place in the Diocese.

Due to illnesses and other conflicts, several Diocesan Council meetings in the first half of the year were cancelled due to the lack of a quorum. In early May, Rusty Holman resigned as First Vice President and Council Member. Chips Lanier was elected by Council as the new First Vice President in their meeting in June. The Rev Lee Anne Reat remained as Second Vice President.

In the latter part of the year, several organizational changes were implemented. Council recognized that it had not been effectively accomplishing all of its assigned duties and the Executive Committee, Resolutions Committee, and Systemic Review Committee were re-established and energized.

Diocesan Council took the following major actions this past year:

MISSION SHARE REVIEWS:
The following parishes were granted reviews of their Mission Shares:
St Peter’s, Gallipolis – Review found that relief was not necessary due to an earlier bookkeeping error and that the existing and projected mission share was in error. It was adjusted accordingly.
St Andrew’s, Dayton – Review reduced the calculated mission share due to a projected severe reduction in income in the next several years. Mission share was reduced with a corresponding increase to normal through 2009.
Christ Church, Dayton – Review still underway. No recommendation made or passed.
St Thomas, Terrace Park – Review recommended a delay in current mission share payments and established a repayment schedule over the next three years.

Diocesan Council Committees:
EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE:
This group will continue its bi-monthly meetings to plan for Council activities and review Council actions.

BUDGET COMMITTEE:
Report presented as a separate document by the Chair of the Budget Committee.

RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE:
All resolutions passed at the 128th Diocesan Convention in 2002 were properly acted upon and implemented as required.
R2002-1 – Memorial to General Convention to Redefine the Healing Ministry – Forwarded to Secretary of General Convention
R2002-2 – Study of Just War Theory – Twenty congregations reported on studies of just war theory and other related topics. Strategies for study included adult forums, Advent and Lenten series, preaching, book studies, seminars, and guest speakers. Bishops and congregations alike have been fervent in their prayers for “the leadership of the United States, the nations of the world and members of the Armed Forces to work for freedom, justice, and peace.”
Diocesan Council received a briefing on the 2003 General Convention and has a compiled list of all resolutions passed at the Convention. The Resolutions Committee will track all the actions and assign them to Diocesan Committees as required to ensure their implementation.

SYSTEMIC REVIEW COMMITTEE:
Plans for the required Systemic Review will be presented to the new Diocesan Council at its December meeting for action during the upcoming year.

I appreciate the opportunity to serve this last six months as First Vice President and the support given to me by the Bishops and all the members of Council. It is impossible to hold this position without their direct help and prayers. If there are any questions regarding this report, or any other activity performed by Diocesan Council, or if you would just like more information, please feel free to contact me by email at: chips-lanier@woh.rr.com.

Raymond H. (Chips) Lanier
First Vice President, Diocesan Council

Advisory Committee on Compensation & Resources (ACCR)
Two of the ACCR’s four scheduled meetings have been held as of this report. The June meeting was canceled due to a schedule conflict with the Diocesan Ordinations and the November meeting will take place after the 2003 Annual Convention. Our primary work this year has been to continue our monitoring of clergy compensation as compared with the Standards adopted by the 126th (2000) and 127th (2001) Annual Conventions, and to advise Diocesan Council’s Budget Committee as to alternative adjustments for the Standard Deduction portion of the Mission Share Fund Plan (MSFP). We also assisted the Office of the former Canon for Ministry in the development of her annual letter to Treasurers, Wardens, and Clergy about implementation of the Standards for Clergy Compensation in 2003. When the ACCR, at the request of Diocesan Council, initially reviewed clergy compensation in our diocese as compared with the proposed new standards, we found that there were thirty-nine (39) clergy whose compensation fell below those standards. By last year the number had fallen to twenty-one (21). Our April, 2003 analysis found that the number had declined to sixteen (16).

On November 18, 2003 we will meet jointly with the Commission on Congregation Life (COCL) to explore the most effective way to respond when our annual analysis indicates that a clergy person’s compensation is below the Standards. Committee members during 2003 were: Mr. Jon B. Boss (Convener), the Rev. Dr. Robert D. Fenwick, the Rev. Arthur C. Hadley, Mr. John E. Harris, Jr., Mrs. Angela Horne, Mr. Scott McKee, the Rev. Dr. Gordon S. Price, the Rev. Dr. Vicki Smith, and the Rev.
Diocesan Archives
The Archives of the Diocese of Southern Ohio preserves the papers of the Bishops and the records of Diocesan Conventions, Commissions, Committees, and Task Forces. The Archives also maintains the files of the parochial reports of congregations and copies of diocesan publications. Registers of communicants and of worship services, annual reports, property records, architectural drawings, and financial records of closed parishes are also retained by the Archives.

The archivist helps locate historical and biographical information for people writing congregational histories. Information about baptisms, confirmations, marriages, and deaths is supplied to people working on their family histories.

The Rev. Dcn. Laura Chace
Historian/Archivist

The Commission on Congregational Life
A change in canons has widened the scope of COCL’s charge to developing and implementing a mission strategy for all congregations. Parishes now fall within the purview of the Commission.

GAP grants for 2003 were given to eleven missions and three clusters. By the deadline for 2004 funding, requests had been received from 24 congregations, three clusters, and La Iglesia, the Hispanic initiative. Thirteen of the congregations were new; several were parishes. Requests for grant money again exceed the available funds. COCL continues to make every effort toward exercising good stewardship with its grants. While the underlying principle of the grants is that they be devolving in nature, in many cases that goal is not achievable.

Throughout the year, COCL has worked with new starts—St. Mary Magdalene, Maineville (Loveland area), and All Saints, New Albany, along with restarts—Good Samaritan, Clermont County, and Holy Family, Harrison. The Commission continues its mentoring and liaison relationship with missions and clusters.

Funding has also been given to clergy and lay for a variety of conferences intended to provide and sharpen skills in developing ministry and mission.

Diocesan Stewardship Commission
Mission Statement
Believing that all we are and all we have is a gift from God, the mission of the Diocesan Stewardship Commission is to assist the congregations of the Diocese of Southern Ohio in helping their members identify and utilize their gifts of time, talent, and treasure to carry out the mission and ministry of Christ’s church in the world.

Objectives
Year-Round Stewardship:
To increase the number of congregations effectively using a year-round stewardship program. Such a program would include the Stewardship of Your Accumulated Assets, the Stewardship of the Environment, the Stewardship of Your Time and Talent, and the Stewardship of Your Income.

Education:
To strengthen overall awareness of the key elements of Christian Stewardship in the Diocese by conducting conferences and workshops, and to increase the number of congregations attending these Diocesan sponsored stewardship events.

Congregational Assistance:
To develop personal contacts with and help at least 6 congregations each year.

Planned Giving:
To help congregations in the Diocese with the establishment of planned giving programs to help fund endowments for the support of such items as outreach ministries and building maintenance programs.

Accomplishments during 2003
We developed an entirely new Diocesan Stewardship Manual that is now available in electronic form on the Diocesan web site. This makes it much easier for congregations to obtain the latest information that is available, and allows the Commission to regularly update and improve the manual in a timely and more cost efficient manner.

Commission members actively worked with the Columbus Deanery, the Hocking Valley Deanery, and the clergy, vestries, or stewardship committees of St. James, Clintonville; St. Alban’s, Bexley; Church of the Redeemer, Cincinnati; St. Andrews, Cincinnati; St. James, Zanesville; St. Andrews, Dayton; Christ Church, Glendale; and St. John’s, Worthington to help strengthen their stewardship programs

Ecumenical and Interfaith Commission
The Ecumenical and Interfaith Commission met several times in 2002. Since a new chair was appointed late in the year, the commission reviewed its recent activities. In addition, it considered new possibilities for future activities. It agreed that over the next three years it would:

- Sponsor a conference on Christian/Jewish/Muslim issues in 2004
- Plan a diocesan-wide education event in 2005 around Churches Uniting in Christ, about which decisions are to be made in 2007
- Increase ecumenical/interfaith activities in the diocese by offering small matching grants to parish programs that are ecumenical/interfaith.

To accomplish these goals, the commission prepared proposed budgets for the next several years that would encompass these activities.
In continuation of recent practice, the commission gave grants to ongoing ecumenical activities in several communities.

The commission heard a report from the chair regarding Churches Uniting in Christ [CUIC]. This is the attempt to reconcile the ministries of nine Christian bodies in order to allow greater cooperation and a more united proclamation of the faith. Included are:
The United Methodist Church
The African Methodist Episcopal Church
The African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church
The Christian Methodist Episcopal
The United Church of Christ
The Disciples of Christ
The Presbyterian Church USA
The Association of Community Churches
The Episcopal Church
Both multilateral and bilateral conversations are ongoing. There is an expectation that some conclusion will be reached by 2007.

Plans were made to meet four to six times a year.

The Rev. Clifford W. Atkinson
Chair

Commission on Ministry
The nature and scope of the Commission on Ministry’s work is delineated in our National and Diocesan canons. The Commission’s chief responsibility is to design, implement and oversee the processes of discernment and formation for ordination that not only fulfill the canons, but are shaped by the challenges and opportunities offered by our Diocesan vision and missionary strategy. Thus, the processes leading to ordination to the Vocational Deaconate and the Priesthood intentionally include programs to identify and encourage persons (particularly those of college age) to explore a possible call to ordained ministry, training programs for lay committees in congregations to assist in discernment, support and guidance for postulants and candidates in academic and spiritual formation as well as meeting canonical requirements for ordination, and participation the decisions regarding the deployment and supervision of the newly ordained.
The scope of the Commission on Ministry’s work is large, as is the number of persons who are preparing for ordination in our Diocese. Currently, there are 59 persons engaged in the process described above: 17 who aspire to the Vocational Deaconate; 31 who aspire to the Priesthood; and 11 newly ordained (two years or less) who serve in the Diocesan Internship Program. This is an astonishing number of people preparing for ordained ministry, for which the Diocese can be both pleased and proud.

The 2003 General Convention undertook a substantial revision of Title III of the national canons. The result is that scope of the Commission on Ministry’s work has become even broader. One implication of this revision was that the Commission has had to modify our diocesan ordination processes to conform to the new Title III revisions, as well as review the status of all who are currently in the ordination process in order that the revised canonical requirements are met. That has proven to be a considerable undertaking, and I am pleased that the Commission has been able to accomplish this task.
before the revised canons take effect on January 1, 2004. Our work in the coming year will continue to focus on our responsibilities in respect to ordained ministry, and to engage the challenging new responsibilities presented by Title III.

I extend my profound thanks to Bishop Price who is an active participant on the Commission, Archdeacon Hanisian, who serves as Diocesan staff liaison, the Rev. Vicki Zust, who serves with distinction as the Secretary to the Commission, and particularly to the members of the Commission. Each one offers their insight, wisdom, gifts and sheer endurance with joy and generosity.

The Rev. John F. Koepke III
Chair

Committee on Professional Development
At the center, the work of our committee is to glorify God and proclaim God’s kingdom. We do so in a specialized way by enabling and encouraging the continuing education and development of the clergy of the Diocese of Southern Ohio, including granting of funds for such purpose, for the building up of the leadership of the church. This is done by administering the process of granting funds made available by the Mary Johnson Endowment for the purposes of continuing education, including conferences, sabbaticals, mission trips with an educational component for the clergy (ie, MVERN), advanced degrees and other professional training programs (ie, doctorates, masters for deacons and Shalem certificated-type programs).

Grants were made for the following programs: Credo, advanced degrees, sabbatical, Stephens Ministry training, pilgrimages to Russia, pilgrimage to Spain, interim ministry training, College of Preacher, small church/cluster ministry conference and group grant for contemplative dialogue.

The work we did last year on revising the system of grant money allotted and the bylaws helped tremendously. There had been a lot of confusion around how much money we had to spend and misinformation about the availability of carry-over funds. We had been granted carry-over for several years, which was not in line with the endowment procedures. That has been clarified. We now receive $10,000 four times a year, with $20,000 going to the intern program, all to be spent between Jan. 1 and Dec. 31.

The Rev. Faith Perrizo
Chair

Communications Committee
The Communications Committee was formed in the fall of 2002 and charged with developing a long-term communications strategy and offering advice and counsel to the communications office. As part of the strategy, the committee developed a mission statement. It is: To share the Good News of Jesus Christ and the ministry of the Diocese of Southern Ohio to congregations and to the world. To communicate and support efforts that strengthen congregations and grow the church, minister to and with the youth, and advance educational opportunities. To utilize an array of communication tools to provide a forum for discussion and exploration of theological, social justice and spiritual issues in the Church.

The committee was very active this year and helped oversee significant changes in the communications office. These include: increasing the frequency and improving delivery of Interchange; launching a marketing campaign with external marketing in Dayton, Cincinnati and Columbus; redesigning the Web site; and improving public relations and raising the profile of the Episcopal Church. Members of the committee are: Anne Rudig, Barb Rohrer, Jim Bليك, the Rev. Lee Anne Reat, and the Rev. Ken Hitch. The committee anticipates launching a second stage of the marketing plan and continuing to improve communications.

Richelle Thompson
Convener

Faith In Life
The Faith in Life Committee (FiL) is our diocesan think-tank. Its members work to provide programming and written materials that assist people in living their faith in the modern/postmodern world. The Rev. Dr. Walter Bouman, a long-time friend of the Diocese, is our Theologian in Residence during the 2003-04 academic year. This year we have introduced the Hobson Colloquium and the Hobson Forum, which we expect to be a continuing series. We invite correspondence with anyone who wishes to suggest topics and concerns with which FiL might helpfully deal. Please contact Don Collins Reed at dreed@wittenberg.edu.

Don Reed
Chair

Evangelism Commission
The Evangelism Commission for the diocese serves to spread the Good News of Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior. Our programs are designed to teach people how to share their faith. This year, we have sent out two brochures to all members of the diocese: on preparing congregations for new people and sharing their faith, and Alpha training. We have, in conjunction with the Friends of the Groom, provided six presentations in various deaneries. This program is designed to teach people how to share their faith. We have sponsored the Alpha Training program to be held at the Christian Life Center in Dayton. We have provided scholarships for the Men’s Retreat at Procter Camp & Conference Center. We have provided for mission congregations to obtain signs. We also provided funds for mission churches to mail welcome postcards.
We encourage new people to join our commission and welcome new ideas.

Portfolio Analysis 9/30/03

The Consolidated Income Fund "I" is invested in a diversified portfolio of high quality bonds, dividend paying common and preferred stocks, and cash equivalents. The objectives of the "I" Fund are to provide a high and relatively stable flow of income while protecting the principal value as much as possible from significant downside movements. Given that the "I" Fund is invested primarily in fixed rate securities of longer duration, it is subject to price fluctuation as interest rates change.

As of September 30, 2003, the "I" Fund held 200 bond issues, broadly diversified across several sectors of the bond market as outlined below. Five stock issues were also held. The current yield at market on 9/30/03 was 4.0%.

PNC Advisors Investment Market Review

- The 12-month period ending September 30, 2003 showed a dramatic reversal in trend from the previous 2 years – stocks rose sharply and performed significantly better than bonds. Both asset classes produced positive returns, well in excess of the inflation rate.

- Terrorist attacks, corporate governance scandals, the war in Iraq, and a recessionary U.S. economy all came to an end for the most part over the last 12-months. The economic recovery has helped rebuild profit growth while the resolution of the other previously mentioned negatives has boosted investor confidence. This combination has led to a significant rally in stock prices since the lows reached in the autumn of 2002.

- Stock prices advanced across the board during the year ended 9/30/03, but several strong trends were in place for most of the period:

  - Lower quality stocks (as measured by S&P Earnings rating and companies not earning a profit) substantially out-performed high quality issues.
  - Smaller companies (measured by stock price under $5) and more volatile issues (measured by beta) significantly out-performed larger, less volatile stock issues.

- Bonds produced historically average returns for the year ended September 30, 2003. Reflecting the economic recovery and increased investor appetite for risk referenced above, the best performing sectors of the bond market were High Yield (junk bonds) and Corporate bonds. The weakest sectors were short to intermediate government bonds (reflecting the aggressive Federal Reserve interest rate cuts) and Mortgage Backed bonds.
Ten Largest Holdings as of 9/30/03

Section 3. There may be a Bishop Coadjutor as provided in the Canons of the General Convention, whom the Bishop, in case of absence or indisposition, may designate as the Ecclesiastical Authority of this Diocese.

Section 4. There may be a Suffragan Bishop in accordance with the Canons of the General Convention, whom the Bishop, or Bishop Coadjutor, in case of their absence of indisposition, may designate as the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese.

Section 7. Whenever the Bishop shall issue a Pastoral Letter and so requests, it shall be the duty of every Minister in charge of a Congregation to read it to that Congregation on some occasion of public worship on a Lord's Day, not later than one month after it has been received. The Minister in charge may also cause copies of the same to be distributed to the members of that Congregation.

Canon XVI The Congregations
The Vestry/Mission Council

Eligible voters
Section 1. Every Congregation certified as a parish shall have a Vestry and every Congregation certified as a mission shall have a Mission Council.

Section 2. All members of the Church in good standing aged 16 or older shall be eligible to vote for the election of a Vestry or Mission Council and on other Congregational matters, who at the time of voting shall have contributed, by subscription or otherwise, to the support of the Congregation and who shall be entitled to enrollment on the list of members in good standing of the Congregation.

Electing the Vestry or Mission Council
Section 3. Every Congregation of this Diocese shall meet annually, some time in the first three months of each calendar year, at a date and time of which public notice shall have been given at least ten (10) days in advance, for the purpose of electing a Vestry or Mission Council. Such meeting shall be opened with prayer, and shall be conducted according to the Rules or Bylaws of each Congregation. If a Congregation be incorporated, the Vestry or Mission Council shall also be the Board of Trustees of the Corporation. The Vestry or Mission Council shall consist of no fewer than five (5) nor more than fifteen (15) members, one of whom shall be Senior Warden and one Junior Warden; and all of whom shall continue in office until successors are chosen. The Vestry or Mission Council may, by a majority vote, elect to its body certain persons in the Congregation, not to exceed two (2) in number, to serve for a period of one (1) year. Such appointed persons may serve for the number of terms determined by the Vestry or Mission Council. The Senior Warden and Junior Warden shall be first elected, in succession, on separate ballots and the remaining members of the Vestry or Mission Council shall be elected on a subsequent separate ballot. Except for the Wardens, a Congregation may elect some of the remaining members of the Vestry or Mission Council for a term of two or more years, provided that no Vestry or Mission Council member shall serve for a period longer than six years without re-election, and that each year some of the Vestry or Mission Council must be elected.

Alternate methods of election
Alternate Method 1
Section 4. (a) Any Congregation of this Diocese, on recommendation of its Vestry or Mission Council, notice of which recommendation shall be given at the same time as notice of the Annual Meeting, may dispense with the direct election of the Senior and Junior Wardens by the members of the Congregation at the Annual Meeting of the Congregation so that, at such Annual Meeting, only members of the Vestry or Mission Council shall be elected. The election of the Senior Warden and Junior Warden shall be deferred until the first meeting of the newly constituted Vestry or Mission Council when said Wardens shall be elected in succession and on separate ballots from and by the members of that Vestry or Mission Council; and members of the Vestry or Mission Council so elected as Wardens shall, if the term of their election to the Vestry or Mission Council permit, serve out their full term after the expiration of their elected term as Senior Warden or Junior Warden.

Alternate Method 2
(b) Notwithstanding the procedure for election of Wardens and Vestry or Mission Council members provided for herein, any Congregation may, by enacting an appropriate regulation, adopt a procedure for the election of Wardens and Vestry or Mission Council members to be accomplished by a single ballot vote to be taken prior to the Annual Meeting. In this event, such ballot is taken following thirty days notice, given in the customary manner, and at such time and place as will enable the eligible voters to cast their ballots before, during, or after regular Church services on two Sundays prior to the...
Annual Meeting. Further, provision shall be made for inclusion of names on the ballot, in addition to those placed by the Nominating Committee, upon presentation of such names by a petition signed by five eligible voters presented to such Nominating Committee, not less than two weeks prior to the first day of balloting.

Terms of Wardens Office
(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Canon XVI, any Congregation may provide by regulation or bylaw that the Senior Warden and the Junior Warden may serve terms of up to three years without re-election.

Presiding Officer
Section 5. The Rector of the Parish, or Vicar of a Mission, if present, shall preside at Congregation meetings, except that he or she may choose to designate a Layperson to preside, or may request the Vestry or Mission Council to elect a Layperson to preside. In the absence of the Rector or Vicar, or that of the Layperson presider, the order of priority for the Presiding Officer shall be ex-officio: 1) The Senior Warden; 2) The Junior Warden; and 3) The Secretary of the Vestry or Mission Council. Should none of the foregoing officers be present, the Congregation Meeting may elect one of its members to preside.

Qualifications of Vestry or Mission Council members and Wardens.
Section 6. A baptized person may be elected to, and may serve upon the Vestry or Mission Council of a Congregation of which he or she is a member; provided, however, that to be eligible as a Warden, one must be at least twenty-one (21) years of age and a member in good standing; and provided further that a majority of the members of a Vestry or Mission Council must be at least twenty-one (21) years of age.

Duties of Vestry or Mission Council
Section 7. (a) It shall be the duty of the Vestry or Mission Council of the Congregation to take charge of the property thereof, and, except so far as the Congregation may have adopted some other plan under Section 14 of this Canon with regard to its endowment funds, to regulate all its temporal concerns. But a Vestry or Mission Council may not convey title or mortgage, or encumber the real property of a Congregation, or divert any of its endowments, or in any way alienate any of said property of a Congregation from the use of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Southern Ohio, without the previous consent of the Bishop and Standing Committee. It shall be the duty of the Vestry to elect and call a Rector and to provide for his or her maintenance. (b) It shall be the duty of the Vestry or Mission Council of the Congregation to maintain the property thereof and to insure the property at a prudent level for its replacement as determined by the Vestry or Mission Council and as approved by the Bishop and Standing Committee.

(b) The Treasurer, and the Secretary if necessary, and such other officers who are charged with the handling or custody of funds, shall be bonded according to the requirements of the National Canons.

_Vacancies in the Vestry or Mission Council and Extinction of Vestry or Mission Council_
Section 12. Vacancies occurring in the Vestry or Mission Council during the year may be filled by the remaining members. If the Vestry or Mission Council should become extinct or incapacitated for action, by the death or resignation of its members, the Bishop may call a special meeting of the Congregation (giving due notice thereof) to elect a Vestry or Mission Council to serve until the Annual Meeting of the Congregation next following; and, if the members of the Congregation shall refuse or neglect to assemble and elect as herein provided, the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, may appoint three Trustees to take charge of the property and endowment funds of the Congregation, and to exercise the rights and functions of the Vestry or Mission Council until the Congregation shall elect the same.

_Congregations incorporated by Special Act excepted._
Section 13. Congregations incorporated under the laws of Ohio in force prior to the adoption of the Constitution of 1851 are excepted from any part of the Canons in conflict with the law under which such Congregations were incorporated and are excepted from the provisions of Section 3 of this Canon with respect to the dates on which the Annual Meeting of such Congregations shall be held.

_Congregations Endowments and Trust Funds_

Section 14. (a) Any Congregation in this Diocese may adopt any plan of Congregation Endowment not inconsistent with the laws of Ohio, or with the Constitution and Canons of this Diocese or of The Episcopal Church.

_Trust funds may be placed with Trustees of the Diocese_
(b) It shall be the right and privilege of the custodians of all endowment funds, and other trust and permanent funds for Church purposes, so far as is permissible under the terms of the grant or bequest thereof, to advise and cooperate with the Trustees of the Diocese of Southern Ohio, hereinafter termed Trustees, and such custodians may deposit said funds in trust with the said Trustees to be held and administered by the aforesaid Trustees, to be used for the object or objects designated by the terms of the gift or bequest and a full, detailed statement of said fund or funds shall be reported annually to the Diocesan Convention.

Section 15. (a) A regular group of worshippers who may, or may not, seek to become an organized mission may be designated as a Mission Station by the Bishop.

(b) A regular group of worshippers who meet in an institutional, recreational, or retreat setting may be designated a Chapel by the Bishop. There is no expectation that a Chapel will seek to become a new Congregation of the Diocese.

(c) Mission Stations and Chapels are under the jurisdiction and direction of the Bishop.

Establishment of Missions

Section 16. (a) At any time, twenty or more persons aged at least 18 years, at least two of whom shall be aged at least 21 years and members of the Episcopal Church, may petition the Bishop for permission to establish a Mission.

The form of petition shall be as follows:

We, the undersigned, being moved by the Holy Spirit, desire to form a new Congregation. We will live and work to extend Christ's Kingdom, and commit ourselves to conform to the Doctrine, Discipline and Worship of the Episcopal Church. We ask the Bishop for permission to establish a Mission within the Diocese of Southern Ohio. We recognize that we are responsible to provide a place for worship and program, and to provide for such sacramental and pastoral ministry as seems appropriate in consultation with the Bishop.

(b) The Commission on Congregational Life shall review the petition as it applies to the missionary needs of the Diocese, assess the prospects for the establishment of a new Congregation in that location, and report its recommendation to the Bishop. The Commission on Congregational Life shall consult with and seek the support of all Congregations contiguous to the territory of the proposed Mission.

(c) When the Bishop determines that the petitioners are able to provide a place for regular worship, and are willing to be evangelists for Christ, and can provide for sacramental and pastoral ministry, the Bishop shall by letter give provisional permission for the establishment of the Mission until the next annual Convention. The Bishop shall so inform the Commission on Congregational Life and Diocesan Council. The provisional Mission shall be presented for union with Convention at the next session of the annual Convention.

(d) The continuation of the Mission and its continued association with the Diocese shall be reviewed by the Bishop or his appointed representative, and by the Commission on Congregational Life, every other year, in the month preceding the anniversary of the letter of formation.

(e) Any Congregation in union with Convention may petition the Bishop to organize a Parochial Mission following the above guidelines. The Congregation shall satisfy the Bishop and COCL of its ability to sponsor and financially sustain itself and the Parochial Mission.

Change in Congregation's Designation

Designation as a Parish

Section 17. (a) For Missions presently in union with the Convention, a change of designation from Mission to Parish shall be made by the Bishop upon recommendation of the Commission on Congregational Life. Criteria for such a change shall be consistent with the following, plus such other factors as the Bishop and Commission on Congregational Life may, from time to time, deem appropriate:

1. Celebration of public worship at least weekly.

2. Maintenance of an adequate level of ordained leadership as approved by the Commission on Congregational Life. Such leadership shall be compensated in accordance with the minimum Diocesan standards.

3. Payment of the Congregation's full annual Diocesan assessment

4. Servicing all legal debts of the Parish.

5. Twenty (20) or more persons aged 18 years or older from at least twenty separate households as members in good standing.

When granted, this designation is provisional until the Commission on Congregational Life submits a resolution to Convention that the Mission be received into union with the Diocesan Convention as a Parish and the Convention approves the resolution by a two-thirds vote of both Orders.

Designation as a Mission

(b) At any time, a change of designation from Parish to Mission may be requested by the Rector and Vestry in order to further the missionary strategy of the Congregation and Diocese. This request will be considered by the Bishop and the Commission on Congregational Life. If approved, the Bishop shall inform the Secretary of the Convention.

(c) For Parishes presently in union with the Convention, a change of designation from Parish to Mission may be made by the Bishop upon recommendation of the Commission on Congregational Life, when at the end of the second consecutive year, a Parish has been unable from its own resources to provide for any one of the following listed below:

1. Celebration of public worship at least weekly.

2. Maintenance of an adequate level of ordained leadership as approved by the Commission on Congregational Life. Such leadership shall be compensated in accordance with the minimum Diocesan standards.

3. Payment of the Congregation's full annual Diocesan assessment

4. Servicing all legal debts of the Parish.

5. At least twenty (20) persons aged 18 years or older from at least twenty separate households as members in good standing.

The change in a Congregation's designation shall take effect upon the Bishop's approval of the recommendation from the Commission on Congregational Life. Criteria for such a change of designation shall be consistent with those listed above plus such other factors as the Bishop, and the Commission on Congregational Life may, from time to time, deem appropriate.

Congregations in Good Standing

Section 18. (a) Any Congregation will be considered to be in Good Standing by meeting the following criteria:

1. The Congregation employs Clergy who are licensed in the Diocese; uses church buildings and grounds for purposes consistent with its consecration; and follows a course consistent with the doctrine, discipline, and worship of this Church.

2. The Congregation annually elects and regularly assembles a Vestry or Mission Council; annually sends representatives to the Annual Convention of this Diocese; pays its full Diocesan assessment for the preceding calendar year by June 30 of any year or by one week before the scheduled meeting of the Convention if that precedes June 30.

3. The Congregation has been diligent in its search for and election of a Rector, or has accepted the Bishop's appointment of a Vicar, or, in the case of a recognized Area and Cooperative Ministry, diligent in searching for and calling a Priest

4. The Congregation maintains adequate insurance to protect the Congregation's capital assets

5. The Congregation makes timely reports and prepares and submits to the Bishop or Ecclesiastical Authority the Parochial Report for the year ending December 31 preceding, not later than March 1 of each year.

7. The Congregation recognizes the Bishop as Chief Pastor of the Diocese.

8. The Congregation shows evidence of financial stability, including protection for the principal portion of endowment funds from persistent invasion and by encumbering property only with the previous consent of the Bishop and Standing Committee.

(b) Should a Congregation fail to comply with Section 18 (a. 2), Section 18 (a. 5), and Section 18 (a. 6), that Congregation shall be denied Lay representation at that year’s Diocesan Convention.

Congregations at Risk

Designation of a Congregation at Risk

Section 19. Purpose (a) This Section is intended to address the exceptional case of a Congregation whose continued viability as a self-sustaining entity appears in jeopardy, such that a degree of episcopate intervention or oversight is needed as a means of restoring health to the Congregation. It is not intended to detract from the traditional right and responsibility of Parishes in the Episcopal Church to govern themselves. In those cases where an inquiry is initiated, and where a Congregation at Risk is declared, it shall be the duty and obligation of all parties to work and pray toward the resolution of such problems in a climate of respect and charity in order to accomplish the speedy end or substantial amelioration of the conditions that led to the inquiry or to the declaration of the Congregation at Risk, and to restore the Congregation to spiritual and temporal health.

Conditions Leading to Determination of a Congregation at Risk

(b) No declaration of a Congregation at Risk may be made except upon a finding, following inquiry, that one or more of the following conditions exist in the Congregation:

1. The failure of a Congregation for two years or more, to be financially self-supporting. It shall not constitute a failure to be financially self-supporting that the Congregation shall have received funding from the Diocese, so long as the Congregation is self-supporting with such funding.

2. The failure for at least two years to elect a Vestry or Mission Council or to search diligently for and elect a Rector or accept the Bishop’s appointment of a Vicar or, in the case of a recognized Area and Cooperative Ministry, to diligently search for and call a Priest.

3. The failure to pay the minimum Clergy compensation as required by Diocesan standards; or the failure for two years to pay such compensation from funds other than those provided by Diocesan assistance; or the failure to make timely payment of the premium under the Clergy pension system, or of the premium for any other obligatory insurance for the Clergy.

4. The refusal or willful failure to arrange for representation of the Congregation at an Annual Convention of the Diocese.

5. The failure or neglect to make canonically required reports, including the annual Parochial Report to the Bishop, or to pay Diocesan assessments.

6. Persistent and significant instability or decline in the financial or temporal condition of the Congregation, as evidenced by, for example, substantial invasion of the principal portion of endowment or trust funds, to such a degree that, in the judgment of the Bishop and the Standing Committee, the long-term viability of the Congregation is in jeopardy.

7. Persistent failure or neglect to conform to the business methods in church affairs required by the Constitution and Canons of the Episcopal Church or of the Diocese, including those requirements relating to the bonding of treasurers or other custodians of funds, proper record keeping, proper maintenance of books of account, an annual audit, and the maintenance of adequate insurance.

8. The purchase, use, or conveyance of property of the Congregation, or the incurring of debt, other than in conformity with the Constitution and Canons of the Episcopal Church and of the Diocese, except where such non-conformity was inadvertent and resulted in no substantial prejudice to the property or temporal interests of the Congregation.

Inquiry for Purposes of Restoration of Congregational Health

(c) An inquiry by the Ecclesiastical Authority leading to a declaration of a Congregation at Risk under this Canon may be initiated by one of the following ways:

1. The Bishop, believing that one or more of the conditions in Section 19 (b) may exist, may initiate such inquiry;

2. The Standing Committee, believing that one or more of the conditions in Section 19 (b) may exist, may petition the Bishop to initiate such inquiry; or if the Standing Committee is the Ecclesiastical Authority, it may initiate such inquiry by unanimous vote;

3. The Rector or Vicar or Priest serving a recognized Area and Cooperative Ministry, or both Wardens, or a majority of the Vestry, believing that one or more of the conditions in Section 19 (b) may exist, may petition the Ecclesiastical Authority to initiate such inquiry.

(d) Upon proper initiation as provided in (c) above, the Ecclesiastical Authority may, itself or acting through its designates, conduct such inquiry into the condition of the Congregation. The Rector, Vicar, or Priest in Charge and Vestry or Mission Council of the Congregation which is the subject of such inquiry shall cooperate in an inquiry under the Canon, including providing to the inquiring entity, upon request, full and accurate information on the state of the Congregation and its affairs. Failure to reasonably cooperate shall be sufficient to permit a declaration that the Congregation is a Congregation at Risk.

(e) Upon a finding that the Congregation is a Congregation at Risk, one or more of the following measures to strive to restore the health of the Congregation may be had, in the discretion of the Ecclesiastical Authority:

1. Arrange for pastoral discussions to be held between the Bishop and/or the Bishop’s representatives and the Rector or Vicar and Vestry or Mission Council of the Congregation to seek amelioration of the conditions that inhibit the health, mission, and ministry of the Congregation.

2. A plan for the Congregation to cure the conditions, which led to the declaration of a Congregation at Risk, agreed to by the Congregation within 30 days, and implemented thereafter in accordance with its terms.
3. Appointment by the Bishop of five or more adult Trustees to take charge of the property of the Congregation and exercise the rights and functions of a Vestry or Mission Council, during the pendency of these conditions. Said Trustees may or may not be from the Congregation.

4. In the case of a Parish, designation of a Priest in Charge during the pendency of these conditions; said Priest may or may not be the incumbent.

5. Conveyance of title of all real property to the Trustees of the Diocese, who shall hold the same in trust during the pendency of these conditions.

6. Such other measures, during the pendency of these conditions, as the Bishop, with the concurrence of the Standing Committee, shall determine (or as determined by the Standing Committee acting unanimously, if it is the Ecclesiastical Authority).

(f) In accordance with Canon XVI, Section 19 (b. 2), when any Congregation shall continue to fail to elect a Vestry or Mission Council, the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee as provided for in Canon XVI, Section 12, may appoint three trustees to take charge of the property of the Congregation and exercise the rights and functions of a Vestry or Mission Council, until the Congregation shall have elected a Vestry or Mission Council under the provisions of this Canon.

Of Area and Cooperative Ministries

Section 20. (a) Whenever two or more Congregations wish to share resources to provide ministry to a geographic area of the Diocese, or in conjunction with a geographic area of a neighboring diocese, they shall draft a Covenant in consultation with the Commission on Congregational Life and the Bishop or the Bishop's appointed representative(s).

(b) The Covenant shall contain, at least:

1. The method of selection of the leadership that will be shared by the Area Ministry, including ordained clergy and licensed lay ministries;

2. The method of financing the Area Ministry including the shared lay and ordained leadership;

3. The method by which the Area Ministry governing body is chosen;

4. The responsibilities of the Area Ministry governing body and the Wardens and Vestry and/or Mission Council of each of the member Congregations, and;

5. The method by which individual Congregations may associate with or disassociate from the Area Ministry.

The Covenant shall be approved by a two-thirds majority vote by each Vestry or Mission Council of the individual Congregations, and shall be subject to the approval of the Commission on Congregational Life and the Bishop.

(c) Any Congregation in the Diocese entering into a cooperative ministry with a congregation in an adjacent Diocese, or with an ecumenical or interfaith congregation involving building use or other shared resources including personnel in this Diocese, shall be obliged to conform to the provisions of subsections (a) and (b) of this Section. Said Covenant must be reviewed by the Chancellor and is subject to the approval of the Commission on Congregational Life and the Bishop. This requirement does not include agreements to rent buildings.

(d) Any such Covenants shall be subject to all provisions of the Constitution and Canons of the Episcopal Church and this Diocese.

Vacant Clergy Positions in Congregations

Section 21. (a) Whenever a Rector's position in a Parish becomes vacant, or about to become vacant, the Wardens or other proper officials of the Parish shall notify the Bishop forthwith.

Vestry to provide compensation
(b) It shall be the duty of the Vestry of a Parish with no Rector to provide for the compensation of any Priest-in-Charge who may be appointed by the Bishop for the maintenance of temporary religious services therein.

To meet with the Bishop to consider nominations
(c) Within 30 days after being informed of such vacancy, the Bishop shall meet with a committee of the electing body of the Parish to consider the requirements of the position to be filled. If the position to be filled is that of an Assistant Rector, the Rector shall act as the committee of the electing body, and shall submit recommendations to the Vestry after having consulted with the Bishop regarding such recommendations.

The Committee and the Bishop may propose for nomination the name or names of clergy at this or any other time until the vacancy is filled. As soon as possible, but no longer than 60 days thereafter, at a second such meeting the Bishop and the committee shall consider all proposed nominees until agreement has been reached on one or more names to submit to the electing body for action, or until it becomes apparent that no agreement can be reached. If additional nominations are requested by the electing body or if an election is declined by the clergy designated, the procedures set forth above shall be repeated until an election has been completed. If the committee and the Bishop cannot agree on clergy to nominate to the electing body, and if the committee and the Bishop have consulted not less than three times attempting to reach such agreement, the nominations of both parties shall be submitted to the electing body for its consideration, and the electing body may then elect any one of such nominees.

Written notice of election to the Bishop
(d) A written notice of the election of a Rector or of an Assistant Rector, signed by the Wardens, together with any contractual agreements concluded between the Parish and the New Rector or Assistant Rector, shall be sent to the Bishop or other Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese.
